

MANUAL TRAINING.

Investigation by a Board of Education Committee of the Toledo Industrial School.

The Committee Highly Pleased With The School-Method of Work, Course of Study and Objects. An Industrial School in Springfield.

A committee of the Springfield board of education took advantage of the Buckeye club excursion to Toledo on Wednesday, to visit that city for the purpose of examining the Manual Training school, with a view to securing a similar school in this city.

The committee was composed of Messrs.
L. H. Lorenz, W. F. Bennett, J. M. Pence, Dr. Kay and Superintendent A. E. Taylor.
Upon the arrival of the excursion at Toledo the committee proceeded to the Hotel Union, whose proprietor, Mr.
Charles Zwick, is president of the Toledo board of education.

Professor H. W. Compton, superintendent of the Toledo school, was informed of the visit of the committee, and he at once arrived at the hotel. The entire party then proceeded to the Manual Training school.
It is a handsome four-story building, located in the central part of the city and admirably adapted for the purposes to which it is devoted.

The school is maintained under the control of the Toledo board of education, and the directors of the Toledo university.
The object of the school is to furnish instruction in the use of tools, with such instruction as may be deemed necessary in mathematics, drawing and the general branches of a high school course.
The tool instruction includes carpentry, wood turning, pattern making, iron chipping and filing, force work, brazing and soldering, the use of machine shop tools, and such other instruction of a similar character as may be deemed advisable, being the intention to train the hands of the student in nearly as possible equality between manual and mental exercises.

In the manual training school the permanent character of the work is emphasized, and the student is trained in the use of tools, and the manual training school is the best, fullest and freshest report of the convention of any paper published, except the Toledo dailies, outside of Cincinnati and Cleveland; and it is
"scarcely" even these in the elaborateness and promptness of its accounts. Of course, the big Cincinnati dailies this morning had endless columns of what they presented in hours in advance, but last night's Cincinnati evening papers were "not a patch" to the Republic in point of handling the convention. As to the Springfield papers, it is direct and open humor to mention their convention accounts with those of the Republic. It was entirely fitting that the time-honored organ of the republican party in this city should lead in the matter in the manner it has done. One of the chiefest conventions in the state's history, and it did so in a way that gave the fullest satisfaction to its participants, and met with appreciative commendation from the public. Our enormous edition of Wednesday and Thursday show this. With complete associated press reports and two staff representatives on the spot, it is no wonder that the local Republic set a precedent for its local initiators and metropolitan competitors.

DISASTROUS FIRE.
A Residence and Two or Three Small Buildings Destroyed This Afternoon.
At 12:45 this afternoon an alarm of fire from box 25, corner of Pleasant and Taylor streets, called the Centrals and Southern to the corner of Pleasant and Boler alley, where a bad fire had broken out. Somebody turned in another alarm, and the Westerns and Lagondas responded.
The fire originated in a coal shed adjoining a house belonging to Owen Mitchell, and occupied by William Brown and family. Some men were cleaning harness and smoking in the shed and the fire caught from their pipes.

The flames spread rapidly and soon communicated to the house. When the department arrived it seemed impossible to avoid a disastrous fire, as several wooden buildings were closely huddled together, but the department soon had the flames under control.

Mr. Brown's house was badly damaged and nearly all his furniture destroyed. The kitchen of the adjoining house was badly scorched and a shed and stable were destroyed. The loss was about $800, partially insured.

GRAND ARMY MATTERS.
Regular Meeting of Mitchell Post Last Night. The Department Responded.
There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of Mitchell post, No. 43, G. A.
R., last evening at headquarters on Washington street. There were two masters and two applications, which were referred to the proper committee. Past Department Commander Evans, of Massachusetts, was present, and gave a very interesting address. He made a very acceptable talk, bristling with points of interest to the boys of the Grand Army.

The "Independent pension bill," which have been cast for two weeks past, were counted and the result announced. It was found that there were 185 votes for and 115 against the bill. An expression of all the G. A. R. posts in the country is being taken on the bill.

The post will have no regular meeting next Tuesday evening, but will meet at 7 p. m. at the hall on Washington street in the big procession of ex-soldiers and ex-sailors.

THEY ARE STILL HERE.
The Acme Picture Company, of Chicago, and Their Great Band.
The Acme Advertising company of the Acme Picture company, of Chicago, are still in the city, and will leave here tomorrow evening for Columbus. This evening they presented their band and orchestra from the front of the Lagonda house. The band of soldiers are having good success with orders and are making some fine pictures. The band, Mr. M. M. M. M. M. pleased with the Champion City, and will probably make a return visit here in the fall. The concert by the band each evening is one of the best of the city. The band sings and people who listen to them. Before and hear the band.

THE DAILY DIVORCE.
The Stines Having Domestic Trouble Against a Husband.
By his attorney, George Board, esq., Noah Stines this morning brought suit in the court of common pleas for divorce from his wife, Ida Stines. The parties were married May 9, 1881, in the county of Hays. The plaintiff says that he has always conducted himself as a faithful and obedient husband and provided for her to the best of his ability. That he and the defendant on or about July 25, 1885, left the plaintiff and has been willfully absent since. There is one child, Earl, aged 6 years. An affidavit accompanies the petition, stating that the present residence of the defendant is Denver, Col.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Comments of the Eastern Press on the Ohio Republican State Convention.
What They Think of It.

New York, July 26.—The Ohio convention receives a great deal of attention from the New York press. The Times says: The most significant thing about the convention is the sweeping victory of Senator Sherman in the unanimous endorsement as a candidate of the republicans of his state for the presidency. It is safe to predict that if Sherman loses now he will go to the national convention with the Ohio delegation at his back.

The Sun says: "Does any republican think that the Ohio convention was a piece of political sincerity, the paper it was written on."

The World says: "The summary support of Sherman following the Ohio convention will leave some soreness, no doubt, but Haine supporters will be compelled to the fact that the endorsement of Sherman is only judging for this year."

The Herald says: "Haine should have the pictures of his Scotland and come home to look after his fences. His sense of security has been ruined by the fact that his tour of Europe must give to the world a picture of his political sincerity."

The Tribune praises the ticket and says:
"The platform adopted is a very interesting one. The Sherman resolution expresses a high regard of Ohio republicans for one who has served his country and state and the republican party well, and the birth of that party, and with rare fidelity and usefulness."

More Springfield Men to the Front.
Special dispatch to the Republic.
TOLEDO, Ohio, July 26.—At the meeting of the Republican State League today Francis T. Thomas, of Springfield, was elected vice president and Charles Stewart of the same place, a member of the executive committee.

WHY WE SMILE.
The "Republic's" Metropolitan Report of the Toledo Convention.

The Republic is never disposed to look on any unnecessary airs, but today it feels like indulging in a little lightheartedness over the handsome manner in which it presented the report of the Toledo convention to its readers. The Republic had by long odds
convention of any paper published, except
the Toledo dailies, outside of Cin-
"scarcely" even these in the elaborateness and promptness of
its accounts. Of course, the big Cin-

AMAGNIFICENT TRIBUTE.
General A. S. Bushnell the Lion of the Toledo Convention.

In a special dispatch to the Ohio State Journal from Toledo this morning, the following account appears of the splendid tribute paid to General A. S. Bushnell, who was among the very foremost figures of the convention:

When the nomination for candidates for lieutenant governor was called for a cry for "Bushnell, Bushnell," went up from all the delegates. The delegates then and "Bushnell" came forward and "Bushnell" was elected.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS.

Interesting Annual Report of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the Year Just Closed.

Divorce Suits, Fines, Costs and Forfeited Recognizances. Crimes Against the Person and Offenses Against Property.
Public Peace, Etc. Inquests.

James H. Fitzhugh, esq., clerk of the Court of common pleas, has just completed his annual report of judicial statistics of Clark county, for the year ending July 1, 1887. It is to be forwarded to the secretary of state to be published in his annual report. The essential features of the report are appended, and many of the items will prove of interest. The divorce part has been particularly active. During the past year seventy suits were brought, to thirty-four the preceding year and forty-four granted as compared with twenty-two the year before. The report, abstracted, is as follows:

BUCKEYE CYCLERS.

Banquet to the Ohio Division of the League of American Wheelmen at the Arcade Last Night.

By the Springfield Wheelmen and Their Friends. The Men and the East of Benson and Egan of South Excellent speeches.

The banquet tendered to the Ohio division of the League of American Wheelmen last night at the Arcade hotel was a pronounced success in every particular. The wheelmen, to the number of 110, came into the city over the 1.10 train, pike from Egan, Maine, arriving at their headquarters, the Arcade hotel, at about 7 o'clock. After supper and brightening up after the hard ride all were ready to continue the sport and pleasant time, which have characterized the entire "touring" meet.

A large number of city people had been invited to participate in the festivities of the evening, in honor of the wheelmen, and at the appointed hour began to assemble in the parlors of the hotel. There was a long wait before the doors of the dining room were thrown open and it was 11 o'clock when the company marched in couple to the music of Egan's horns.

It was a splendid affair, and a splendid company of waiters, headed by R. C. Falker, handled the company. The dining room was beautifully and well furnished. Every course was admirable and delicious, presenting the following:

Menu.
Mock turtle.
Oysters.
Broiled fillet of salmon, a la Reine.
Parmentier potatoes.
Address of Rev. J. C. Benson.

Broiled Spring Chicken on Toast.
Asa Pettit Cook.
Weston's Ham, Stuffed Tongue.
Scrambled Eggs, a la Maitre d'Hotel.
Deli-cate Cake, a la Maitre d'Hotel.
Compositional cake.

Bananas, Raisins, Oranges, Peaches.
Cheese, Java, Crackers.
THE TOASTS.
After deliberating over the substance of the address and indulging in a free and entertaining conversation with each other for one hour and a half, all were ready to turn their attention to the toasts of the evening which were in waiting from a number of ready and interesting speakers.

President Kirkpatrick was toast-master, and after a pleasant introductory, the following programme was enjoyed: Toastmaster—J. C. Kirkpatrick.
Address of Rev. J. C. Benson.
The Ohio Division, L. A. W.
James R. Dunn, Massillon, O., Chairman.
The Machine that has Come to Stay.
Rev. J. C. Benson, D. D.
The Wheelmen.
Rev. J. C. Benson, D. D.
The Ladies.
Rev. J. C. Benson, D. D.

Judge Miller said:
GENTLEMEN AND WHEELMEN OF OHIO:
I have the honor to be invited to speak tonight to you, and I am glad to do so. I divines, lawyers and others, without difficulty, but in talking to you I have had to "renew" the committee called on me and as an emergency I am here, as all our other men of brains are in Toledo. He showed that all the good roads run into Springfield, and that the old National road was built Springfield and was called an objective point. It was called the
"Ohio road," because the wild animals crossed their path here in coming from east and west and from north to south.

See you have come to a great town. Drive know what you have in this city. We are glad to see you and bid you welcome in the name of the city of Springfield.

GENTLEMEN AND WHEELMEN OF OHIO:
I have the honor to be invited to speak to-
divines, lawyers and others, without difficulty, but in talking to you I have had to
as an emergency I am here, as all our
showed that all the good roads run into Springfield, and that the old National
road was built Springfield and was called
an objective point. It was called the
"Ohio road," because the wild animals
crossed their path here in coming from east and west and from north to south.
